

PLAGIARISM SCAN REPORT

Date	2020-02-27
------	------------

Words	200
-------	-----

Characters	1159
------------	------

Content Checked For Plagiarism

our project domain is smart construction plus.in this website first of all admin will create a new project and that project will be added on ongoing project.their is one tab available ongoing project in ongoing project in process project will running and only admin can see that their project details.and admin can delete that project only admin can create new project.admin name is pooja.admin will upload that project images and send to the manager and manager get email that he have assigned new project. and he will start work on that project. i also implement a user site means that user will check our website if user like our any house construction or need house or flat than user can enquiry for that project but before enquiry user have register and login our project owithout register user can not enquiry for any house or project.user can reset and forgot password if he forgot their password or username.that all things will be store in database and our database name is construction +. we also implement a manager app means that whatever project admin will create and admin will assign to any manager they will get a mail of their project, house.

Matched Source

No plagiarism found